

Date: 15th November 2023

Time: 11.00 am

Venue: Cavendish University Uganda - Seyani Campus (Plot 1469 Ggaba Road).

PRESS RELEASE

Cavendish University Uganda Contributes Towards the Wedding of HRH King William Gabula Nadiope IV

Cavendish University Uganda, a leading private university committed to the education of employable and entrepreneurial citizens has today announced its contribution to the Royal wedding of His Royal Highness William Gabula Nadiope IV, the Kyabazinga of Busoga Kingdom and Her Royal Highness Jovia Mutesi.

As part of the university's dedication to promoting the development of responsible citizens, through culture, the university has contributed Ushs 5,000,000 to the Busoga Royal Wedding set for November 18, 2023.

"We are honoured to extend our support to the Busoga Kingdom in celebration of the momentous occasion of the wedding of HRH King William Gabula Nadiope IV," stated Prof. John Mugisha, the Vice Chancellor of Cavendish University Uganda, who added that, "The university sees the royal wedding as an opportunity to express its profound love, respect and solidarity with Busoga and the celebration of a rich culture." The University's Executive Director, Mr. David Mutabanura highlighted the big role played by culture in fostering unity and the development of ethical, productive and responsible citizens, in line with the university's mission".

The contribution, which was received by the Katukiro of Busoga Kingdom, Owek. Dr. Joseph Muvawala expressed gratitude to Cavendish University Uganda underlining the strong relationship with the university that spans many years. He recognised the university's commitment to community engagement and dedication to promoting cultural heritage beyond academic boundaries. He recognised the university's practical and innovative teaching and learning approaches that other higher education institutions should seek to emulate.

Cavendish University Uganda extend warm wishes to His Royal Highness King William Wilberforce Gabula Nadiope IV and the entire Busoga Kingdom on the historical occasion of the royal wedding and promises, through higher education, to collaborate with the kingdom in its goal of curtailing poverty, ignorance and disease within the Kingdom. The announcement of the contribution was witnessed by the 2nd Deputy Katukiro of Busoga Kingdom, Owek Osman Noor Ahmed, the Chairman of the Central Organising Committee of the Royal Wedding, Eng. Patrick Batumbya, several Busoga Kingdom cabinet ministers and other invited guests.

Contact Information: For media inquiries related to Cavendish University Uganda's contribution to Busoga Kingdom and the Royal Wedding, please contact the university on the address detailed below:

Cavendish University Uganda

Plot 1469, Ggaba Road, Nsambya (opp. American Embassy)
P.O.Box 33145, Kampala, Tel: +256 414 531700
info@cavendish.ac.ug, www.cavendish.ac.ug